

The How To Guide to MyDMF

MyDMF gives access to all act times ONLINE. With the £5.00 subscription service, you can have the full 3-day programme on your device. You can favourite and print out your very own schedule for the weekend. It's a fully customisable way to download the acts and bands you want to see (and leave out those you don't!).

Simply head over to the Festival Shop page: <https://www.dartmusicfestival.co.uk/shop/> and click on the link for MyDMF.

Fill in your details to create an account – make sure it's something memorable – and click subscribe. You will then be directed to the Billing page where you need to fill in your name and address details. Then click on 'Continue to payment'. If you don't have a PayPal account, you can still pay by card. Note the instructions in the orange box and be sure to check your junk/spam folders in case the download link has appeared there!
